PROCLAIMING THE FAITH

IN 50 COUNTRIES

UNDER 56 MISSION BOARDS

“Go Ye Into All The World, and Preach The Gospel to Every Creature”

The Principal's Message

“Walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God.” Col. 1:10.

Every person needs a purpose, a goal for life. Here is part of the goal that Paul had for the members of the church at Colosse.

He wanted them to keep a close connection with the Lord Jesus Christ their Saviour and to show their love for Him by having, as their sole motive, the desire to please Him and to be worthy of Him.

He prayed that they might show to their fellow-men the reality of their faith by being engaged in every worthwhile activity.

He knew that this sort of life would lead them into the secret place of the knowledge of the Most High.

For the graduates of 1960, we would offer the same prayer. May they “walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing.”

AND our class wishes to bestow OLIVE FIELDER'S love for personal work upon the entire College family.

bestows her sunny smile from the Jamaican Isle upon us all.
vacates her front seat in the auditorium to Willi Pearson.
leaves the freedom of bachelorhood to Frank Byrne.
leaves her secretarial position to domesticate Keith.
willingly donates his trips to the "lost and found department" to Gord McCracken.
bequeaths his love for farming to Mr. Fraser.
passes on her footstool to Annemarie Hattenhauer.
hands over her keys of the Rogues Barracks to the next inmates.
sacrifices her short hair for a long haired musician.
leaves her student days for married bliss.
confers her quiet faithfulness upon Janet McLeod.
"P.H.D." confers her degree in paper hanging and decorating upon Judy Garland.
donates a good supply of unbreakable ping-pong balls to the recreational committee.
reluctantly relinquishes Ferdinand and Albert to their rightful owner.
willingly discontinues trio days for duet days.
passes on his theological enigmas to all up-and-coming "theologs".
wills her long black hair to June Harrington.
willingly transfers her artistic ability to the next competent slave.
donates a sheet of paper to enable Bernie Sebring to reach the ceiling.
leaves her shorthand ability to any junior who wants to avoid writers' cramp in Church History.
abandons her candy cane outfit for a nurses' uniform.
confers her "social"ist tendencies upon a '61 cabineteer.
gratefully relinquishes his refilled bottle of "Bayers" to the next publications leader.
transmits his electrical genius to the fellow who wants a hair raising experience.
leaves all but her Dutch male to the class of '61.
presents her black stockings, green plaid shirt and innumerable yards of white material to the next day-booker.
wills her "cult-i-bating" tendencies to Mr. Percy's cult class.
leaves student days at T.B.C. to the other "family" men.
hands over his last pair of braces to Mr. Crump.
is still looking for a mite box magnet to bequeath to the next missionary leader.
leaves T.B.C. for T.T.C. (Toronto Teachers' College).
bequeaths his bow ties and his gracious manner to the next student president.

"A Faith to Proclaim"—the theme of this year's Gateway, brings into focus the student's attitude to the "Faith which was once delivered unto the saints." It would be quite impossible to attend lectures at T.B.C. without gaining a profound respect for the faith which is the gift of God unto salvation. We have learned something of the magnitude of this faith, and have been made aware of the urgency of proclaiming it to every creature.

"Father, grant to us we pray, courage, wisdom and tact as we present the gospel of Jesus Christ. Help us, O Lord, to proclaim the FAITH."

"Not I, but Christ"

Our motto hungers for incarnations.

A boy, learning the burning need of African boys, resolved: — "I now know . . . I feel . . . I move . . ." These natural exercises of personality — the mind, heart and will — when lifted to Christ's level express the supernatural.

This process hinges on our reception of Him (John 1:12,13). Then life becomes real and rich (Rev. 3:20; John 15:4, 5). The result: —

- (i) "Not I, but Christ" thinks. "Bringing into captivity every thought . . ."
(2 Cor. 10:5).
- (ii) "Not I, but Christ" loves. The motive—not 'to get' but 'to give'. (Mark 10:45).
- (iii) "Not I, but Christ" serves. "Not as I will but as thou wilt". (Matt. 26:39).
"Love so amazing, so divine, demands . . . my all!"

"The just shall live by faith." In our walk through a sin torn world, faith is a precious bulwark to those who are in Christ Jesus. As Evening Class students from many spheres of life, we unite to study God's word, our training so directed as to produce through the Spirit a strong triumphant faith walk. Being recipients of God's marvellous grace, let us go forth with a vibrant faith that works, not one that shirks. Such a faith wrought out in obedience to our Saviour's leading not only brings blessing now, but "though it be tried by fire, might be found unto praise, honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ."

For over fifty years on land and sea Shantymen missionaries have sought to carry the Gospel of the grace of God as it is in Christ Jesus to men, women, and children of every nationality, colour and creed on this Continent.

Our ministry has been extended to reach not only men in lumber camps, but also those in mining, construction and prison camps, oil fields, residents in remote settlements, sailors on deep sea vessels, fishermen and children.

THE BIBLE SOCIETY

The Scriptures have been published in the languages spoken by 95% of the people of the world.

The most urgent aspects of translation work today are Bible revisions, so that the Scriptures may be printed in a script and language man can readily understand, and the completion of Bibles in languages in which only part of the Scriptures has been published. The Translations Department of the British and Foreign Bible Society is currently supervising translations in over 300 languages and in 90 of these the complete Bible is involved.

In the light of increases of population and literacy present distribution of Scriptures throughout the world is far too small. Circulation must be greatly increased, doubled if possible.

Please pray for and support the Bible Society.
